

NEWPORT TEAM WINS FINAL MATCH

Defeat Lake Bowlers in Series of Twelve Games, and Claims Championship.

By winning the final game of the series last night at the Newport Albers from the strong Lake team, the Newport bowling team won the bowling championship of Richmond. A total of twelve games was played, and that the fight was a hard one is shown by the fact that the Newport bowlers won by a bare majority of seventeen pins in the twelve games.

The match last night was witnessed by a large crowd. Some very high scores were made, and the games were very interesting and exciting throughout. The games in detail:

His Policy and Health Caused Chase to Desert.

SAN JOSE, CAL., February 4.—Following the receipt of the news of his reinstatement last night, Hal Chase said he would join the New York Americans for spring training at Macon, Ga., about March 1. He blamed "Elderfeld's policy" for his leaving last night, and said he had inducements to remain in California, but would leave rather than be known as a contract jumper.

"KING" CLARKSON DIES IN WALTHAM

Famous Ten-Thousand-Dollar Pitcher of the Old Chicago Club.

WALTHAM, MASS., February 4.—John Clarkson, famous the land over as a baseball pitcher in the days when $10,000 release prices began to be paid between National League clubs, died here today. He had been a patient for about two weeks, following a long illness, which began with an attack of pneumonia, at his home in Waltham.

Clarkson's name developed with his work as a pitcher for the Chicago club in the early eighties. His release was purchased for $10,000 by the Boston club in 1887. Clarkson was forty-eight years old and married.

Former Danville Star Affixed Signature to Atlanta Contract.

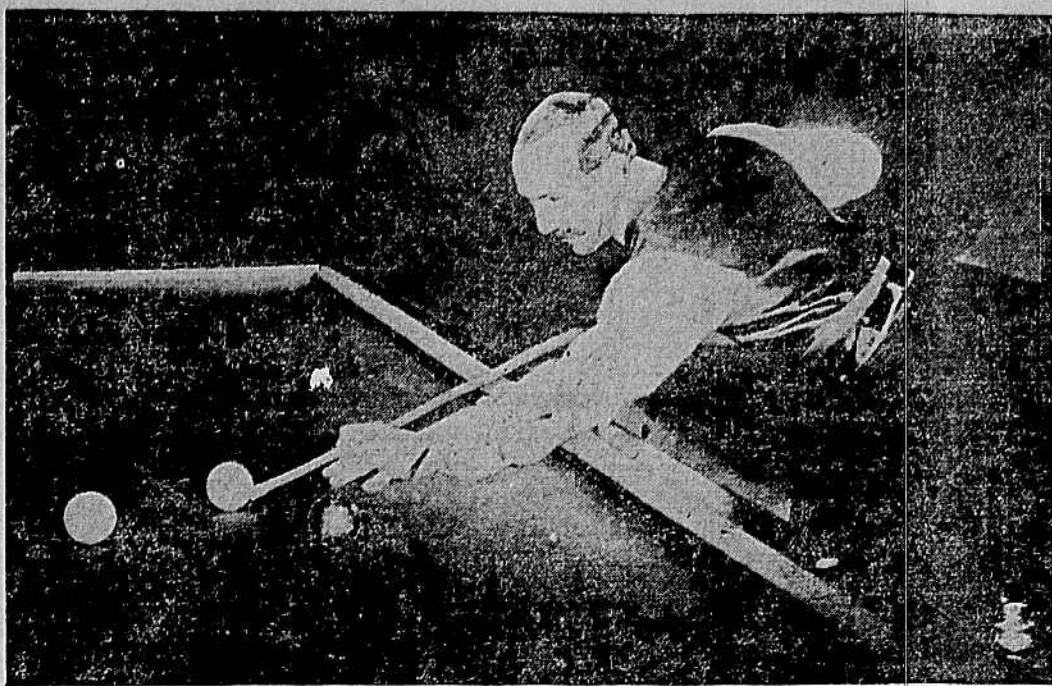

Jake Henn, the outfielder who was drafted by Atlanta of the Southern League from the Danville team, of the Virginia State League, has sent in his signed contract. Henn was with the possible exception of George Stinson, the greatest all-round fielder in this league last year, and should be in good condition this season. He will show the doctors of the croaker town how to knock down center field fences, and as to coming in and going back after fly balls, Jake has few equals in the business.

Big Richmond Pitcher Getting Praise from Gotham.

Jack Quinn, the big giant, who was drafted by the New York Americans from the local team, is being given much space these days by the sport writers of the metropolitan newspapers. Manager Stallings says he will have Jack report ready to begin practice February 16.

In a letter to a friend in this city a few days ago Quinn said he never felt better in his life, and that if hard work would accomplish anything his friends in this city could count on him making Ed Walsh, Rube Waddell, "Wild Bill" Donovan and Eddie Ross look like amateurs.

WEEKLY DRAG OF ALBEMARLE CLUB

Large Crowd in Conveyances Watch the Run from the Hillsides.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTEVILLE, VA., February 4.—Ideal weather prevailed for the weekly drag of the Albemarle County Hunt to-day. The start was at "West Cairns," the home of Kenneth Brown, the author, just west of the university, and the course lay southward through the Maury estate to the City Reservoir. Here riders and horses turned and traversed practically the same course taken at the start, the finish being at the magnificent estate, "Birdwood," on the Ivy Road, where the riders and many guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edgar. A large crowd in traps and other conveyances watched the run from the hillsides.

Ally Craven, M. F. H., hunted the hounds, while the whippers-in were Roy Horne and Robert E. Cree. Among the riders who were well up at the finish were Mrs. William Pitts, Charles W. Hulse, Tim Wier, of New York; Grainger Calhoun, of Baltimore; Don Cameron, of Richmond; William Bala and Mr. Higginson.

OFFICIALS NAMED FOR THE MARATHON

Tim Hurst to Referee; "Big Tim" Sullivan to Start Them.

NEW YORK, February 4.—The officials for the Longboat-Shrubbs Marathon race, which takes place at Madison Square Garden to-morrow night, were selected yesterday at a meeting between representatives of the two runners and the management. A telegram had been sent to Albany to "Big Tim" Sullivan requesting him to act as starter, and while the meeting was in progress a reply was received saying that he would be on hand to direct the gun that will send the two runners off on their grueling twenty-six mile journey.

Tim Hurst, the well known umpire, was selected to act as referee. The scoring will be in charge of Al Conland, and the members of the New York Times' Club will act as official timekeepers. The other officials selected by the two runners were:

For Longboat—Judge, W. J. Little, of Montreal; official scorer, Rev. J. D. Morrow, of Toronto; timer, Judge Francis Nelson, of Toronto; physician, Dr. Wilson, of Toronto; attendant, James DeForest.

For Shrubbs—Judge, David Driscoll, of Newark; official scorer, Mr. Taylor, of Montreal; timekeeper, T. S. Sinnott, of Toronto; physician, Dr. P. W. Dixon, of Montreal; attendant, Arthur Duffy.

The track, which will be ten laps to the mile, will be built by "Sparrow" Robertson and measured and surveyed by Fred W. Ruben. Not since the Marathon race in 1907, when Dando came over here to race Johnny Hayes, began has there been so much interest as there is in to-morrow night's race.

TRINITY COLLEGE IS BADLY BEATEN

Wake Forest Takes Her Into Camp, Not Allowing Field Goal.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WAKE FOREST, N. C., February 4.—Wake Forest obtained revenge here to-night, defeating Trinity in a fast game of basketball, 30 to 5. The visitors were outclassed at every point of the game, not shooting a single field goal. The game was the hardest fought contest ever witnessed here, and from the toss of the ball until "time up" was blown, every one was busy. Brown and Duffy were easily the stars for Wake Forest, and both did fine work. The line-up:

College. Positions. Trinity.

Amen.....left forward.....Baxter
Duffy.....right guard.....Killer
Brown.....left guard.....West
Field goals—Gay, 2; Duffy, 1; Brown, 3; Carriek, 1; Amen, 3; Fouis—Baxter, 5; Brown, 2; Duffy, 2. Referee, Crozier. Umpire, Card.

PENNSYLVANIA TO ROW YALE'S EIGHT

Crews Will Meet in Mile Race on Schuylkill in April.

NEW HAVEN, February 4.—Arrangements have been made for the eight-oared crews of Yale and the University of Pennsylvania to row a one-mile race on the Schuylkill River on Saturday, April 10, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The race is the most important innovation of the intercollegiate rowing season yet announced, and includes two changes in Yale's rowing policy, aside from the general effect of a closer athletic relationship with the Quakers.

In the first place, Yale has not met Pennsylvania on the water since both rowed in the race on the Hudson in 1897. In the second place, Yale will take her entire Easter week training in Philadelphia this season. The varsity rowing squad will leave here on March 31, and will go to Philadelphia, where the oarsmen will be quartered in some accessible hotel. They will row daily on the Schuylkill, and will close their stay in the Quaker City with the race. Clement B. Ward, of Philadelphia, a Harvard alumnus, has been chosen as referee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ALEXANDRIA, VA., February 4.—The Alexandria Golf Club ended its affairs yesterday, when it decided to sell its furniture to the Old Dominion Boat Club and its house to the George Washington Monument Association. The latter association recently acquired the property on which it is located.

Bijou—"Tony, the Bootblack."
Lubin—"Continental vanderville."

"The Cat and the Fiddle," the musical extravaganza, will be at the Academy to-night, to-morrow matinee and night. A company of forty people is promised, many of whom are well-known to local theatre-goers, and include Charles A. Selton, the Elmore Sisters, Florence Willis, Theresa Miller, Schmitz Seymour, and others, together with a chorus hand-somely gowned in smart and latest designs.

The play is in three acts and twenty-one beautiful scenes are in keeping with the rest of the high standard. The song hits, tuneful and melodious, include "Rosy Dreams," "The Old Stuff Goes So Well," "What's the Use of Telling New," "Lola From South Dakota," "Modesty Restrains Me From Adding Any More," "The Date Tree," and fifteen others. The Elmore Sisters, in their famous skit, "Nearly Grand Opera," is one of the hits of the show.

Clyde Fitch has scored the biggest hit of his career as a playwright with his farce, "The Blue Mouse," now running at the Lyric Theatre, New York, and which will be presented here by a special company released by the author on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Wednesday matinee.

In the junior contests Cable took place in the swimming broad jump with 15 feet 7 inches; second, Hoem with 15 feet; third, Cosby, with 13 feet 10 1/2 inches. The Nationals swamped the Americans in the indoor baseball game, 19 to 5. The former team also took the relay pursuit race.

The first game of basketball in the Intermediate League will be played to-night.

The juniors were outwitted and outplayed by the older players, but put up a game fight. Parsons and H. Taylor were the mainstays for the youngsters, both playing a heady game. The line-up:

WALKOVER FOR MOHAWK TEAM

In a game replete with fast work by the winning five, the Mohawks managed to walk away with the Juniors last night at the Covington gymnasium by the score of 33 to 10. Lorraine and Taylor were again the principal goal throwers, having little difficulty in keeping the ball well in their opponent's territory.

HANNAN MAY HEAD VIRGINIA LEAGUE

Dispatch from Norfolk Says Danville, Portsmouth, Roanoke and Norfolk Are for Him.

NORFOLK, VA., February 4.—It develops here to-night that by a combination on the part of Roanoke, Danville, Portsmouth and Norfolk, W. M. Hannan, Jr., of Norfolk, who is now no longer connected with the Norfolk club, will be elected president-secretary of the Virginia League at the next meeting.

It is known here that Roanoke, Danville and Portsmouth are ready to vote for Hannan, and Mr. Consolo, of the Norfolk club, in a statement to-night, said that Jake Wells is his first choice and Hannan second choice. Otto Wells, when seen to-night, admitted that it is probable that Jake Wells would withdraw and that he would not object to Hannan being made president, believing he would be acceptable and capable.

He further declared that his brother did not care for the position, remaining in the race only because of the urging of Richmond, Norfolk and Lynchburg.

The election of Billy Hannan to the presidency of the Virginia League would cause little surprise in Richmond. It is generally known here that Jake Wells is not anxious to be re-elected because of the fact that he has moved his headquarters to New York, and that his duties would seriously interfere with his business interests. The league managers will meet here on March 1, and the election will be held at that time. Roanoke, Danville and Portsmouth, which twice voted for Charles W. Boyer, will now that Boyer is forever out of the running, support Hannan. In the event of a deadlock on the first ballot, there is every reason to believe that Norfolk will switch to Hannan.

Hannan is well known in baseball circles, having been secretary of the Norfolk Club for three years, and he is regarded as a capable and efficient man.

RETAINS TITLE.

Abe Attell Has Little Difficulty in Defeating Eddy Kelly.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., February 4.—Abe Attell, of California, found no difficulty in retaining the featherweight championship when he met Eddy Kelly, of New York, in a scheduled round bout before the Southern Athletic Club to-night. At the start Kelly assumed the aggressive, but was unable to administer any effective punishment to Attell.

When Kelly came up for the seventh round Attell sent him to the floor four times in quick succession, and his seconds, seeing that he could not last longer, gave up the fight.

FIRED THROUGH CAR

Conductor Narrowly Escapes Bullet Intended for Rieling Negro.

Conductor Burton, of the Broad and Twenty-fifth Street line, narrowly escaped death last night, when a negro fired through the window of the car of which he was in charge. Burton states that near the corner of Thirty-first and M. Street, a negro with a tan overcoat jumped on the rear platform, and that a second later a bullet crashed through his car. The bullet entered the rear platform, as well as one of the windows on the inside, was broken by the bullet.

Burton said that if he had been standing by the school board, he would have assuredly received the bullet intended for the negro. It was learned after the accident that the two negroes crouched on the street corner, and the one who boarded the car had struck the man that fired the pistol. The attack occurred at 7:45 o'clock, and no arrests were made.

BREAK GROUND FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Work was begun yesterday on the new High School at Highland Park. The building is located on what is known as the Harris property, which has been recently purchased by the city. It is located at the corner of Second Avenue and the county road, fronting 374 feet on the county road and 224 feet on the road with a depth of 180 feet on the former and 331 feet on the latter. The contract was awarded January 11 to Arable & Brother. When the building is completed Highland Park will have the best school facilities in the suburbs.

Mancheater Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

The Finance Committee will meet to-night, when the revised budget for the present year will come up for consideration. There are several changes to be made in the committee room, and as the conclusion of the meeting, the document will have been considerably changed from its original form. Among the contemplated changes that came up at the last meeting, but were laid on the table until to-night, is an increase in the public school appropriation. The school board asks for $2,900 for much needed repairs on the various school buildings. Then it is possible that a little slice may be whacked off some of the appropriations, in order to swell the contingent fund, for which there was only a small balance at the last meeting of the committee. It is also not at all unlikely that the sewer tax may be reduced and the school tax slightly raised. Several other unimportant changes will be made.

The Business Men's Association will also meet to-night, the first Friday in each month being the regular meeting night of the organization. With the exception of the selection of delegates to the International Good Roads Convention, to be held at the Jefferson Hotel in March, only routine business will be considered. It is not likely that there will be any discussion of consolidation.

Death of Mrs. Webster.

Mrs. Lucy Anne Webster, wife of R. S. Webster, of 1300 McDonough Street, died at her home yesterday morning at 1 o'clock after an illness of five days. She took a severe case of pneumonia, from which she never recovered. Mrs. Webster was fifty-nine years old, and besides her husband, is survived by several grown children. The funeral will take place from Cowardin Avenue Christian Church to-day at 3 o'clock. Interment will be in Haverhill Cemetery. Mr. Webster is at present very unwell.

Mrs. Grossman Curses Excitement.

Mrs. M. Grossman, wife of the Russian convicted of arson and sentenced to the penitentiary from the Corporation Court of this city several months ago, has created no little excitement recently by her frantic efforts to secure her husband's pardon. Yesterday she called at the office of Commonwealth's Attorney Page and asked him to sign a petition for the pardon. Upon his refusal to grant her request she became so excited that it was necessary to call an officer, who escorted her to a car. A few days ago she went to the home of Mr. Page and created a scene. The woman and her children are now living on Broad Street, Richmond. Mrs. Grossman has been in the Capitol recently to see the Governor about a pardon for her husband.

Church News.

The revival services now going on continue to attract large crowds, and it is not unlikely that some of the churches will conduct them all week. At West End Church last night the pastor, Rev. J. M. Rowland, preached a powerful sermon on "Blood," his Scripture text being: "When I see the blood, I will pass over you."

Mr. Haddon S. Watkins sang several solos. At both Decatur Street and Central churches the usual large congregations were present. Many asked for special prayer following the sermons. Services will be held at Cowardin Avenue Christian Church, both morning and night, Sunday. The pastor, Rev. Hugh W. Schubert, will deliver both sermons, taking as his text in the morning, "Overcoming evil with good," and at night, "Jesus, the Saviour From Sin."

Elect Substitutes.

At a meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners held last night, the following voters elected substitute firemen: J. O. Belcher, J. A. Lipscomb and M. A. Owens. Many applicants of routine were attended to by the board. The Health Committee met and passed a few bills that were not acted on at the last regular meeting. The Street Committee also met and approved a number of bills.

Successful Musical.

The musical given at Forest Hill school house last night for the benefit of the Church of the Good Shepherd was largely attended. Foreign as well as local talent contributed to the entertainment, and the affair was highly successful. Signor and Madame de Costa, of Belgium, rendered a number of vocal selections, and Professor Firmin, of Holland, delighted the audience with several violin solos. A number of local musicians also contributed.

Elks' Reception Tuesday.

Next Tuesday will be observed as Ladies' Day at the Elks' Home, and a reception will be held from 4 to 7 P. M. Those in the receiving line will be Mrs. George E. Gay, Mrs. Lawrence Ingram, Mrs. John L. Morris, Mrs. W. F. Merchant and Miss Bessie Page. A number of the younger set will serve light refreshments.

Valentine Tea.

The members of the First Presbyterian Church will hold a Valentine Tea in the lecture-room of the church Friday afternoon. A splendid musical program has been arranged, following which light refreshments will be served. A silver offering will be taken.

Caracrist—Donald.

Miss Jessie A. Donald, daughter of Peter Donald, was married at the home of her father Wednesday night to V. Z. Caracrist, of Richmond. Coming to a recent bereavement, only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Fix, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. Mr. and Mrs. Caracrist left for a Northern tour and before returning will visit their home at 2205 Hanover Street, Richmond.

Personal and Otherwise.

Augustine Royal, on a hunting trip in North Carolina.

Judge William I. Clifton will return from Chesterfield to-morrow.

James P. Jones, of Balbridge Street, is in New York, where he will remain until early next week.

Coulter C. Lamb, who has been very sick, is rapidly improving.

Mrs. R. E. Dalton, of 423 Hull Street, is quite ill at her home.

T. A. Pulley and daughter, Miss Annie Pulley, are visiting Miss Pulley, of 1320 Port Street.

John Avery and Emmett Blunt, charged with street fighting, were fined $2.50 and cost in the Police Court yesterday morning.

William Price, colored, was sent to jail for thirty days on the charge of being a suspicious character by Mayor Maurice yesterday.

W. W. Zepp, of Washington, arrived in the city yesterday and took the three boys recently caught here by Officer Moore home. Two of the boys were his sons; the other was the son of Mrs. Emma R. Lucas, of DeQuincy Place, Washington. The boys recently came here and secured employment, claiming they were from Gordonsville. Davis Council, No. 27, of O. U. A. M. met at the lodge room, corner of Eighth and Hull Streets, last night. A large number of members were present.
